OEWD – Workforce Division
Presents
Spring Workforce Development Forum

“Partnerships for Success: Growing a Competitive Workforce System”

April 12th and 13th
At the Holiday Inn Golden Gateway
1500 Van Ness Avenue, SF. CA. 94109

OEWD – Workforce Division is convening a forum for key strategic partners of the San Francisco workforce development system. This exciting event is designed to bring together:

- Community-based organizations and other service providers
- Education institutions
- Funders
- Government agencies
- Elected officials and Policy body representatives
- Business and industry representatives
- Organized labor representatives

Together we will explore local, state, and national workforce development strategies. Our goal is to engage key partners in a strategic dialogue on working together to build a more competitive workforce development system for San Francisco.

At this event, direct service staff, management, and leadership of workforce organizations will have the opportunity to:

- Gain valuable insights and new perspectives on workforce development strategies
- Learn new and innovative ways to partner with various system stakeholders
- Develop strategies to build your organization's capacity
- Strengthen programs and practices for serving employer and jobseeker customers

REGISTRATION: Space is limited. All attendees must register. Registration will close on April 1st at 5pm. To register, please follow this link:
